Tatanagar India International Trade Fair op

Mail News Service
Jamshedpur, April 3: Tatanagar India International Trade Fair was inaugurated by State food and civil supplies minister Saryu Roy in presence of ASIA President Inder Agarwal at Gopal Maidan on April 3. Traders and manufacturers from automobile, handicraft, handlooms and other sectors have come up with attractive offers at the 12-day fair. About 350 stalls of various segments from the country as well as from Afghanistan, Thailand, Bangladesh and Nepal will participate in it. The fair is being organised by Aashi Nelsa Events Private Limited. Ashish Srivastava, director, Aashi Nelsa Events Private Limited said that international and national brands are participating in the fair. They are new products together with discounts and offers. Customers should make the best use of the offers, as this is the most appropriate time to purchase products. He informed that from healthcare to food products, several manufacturers are participating in the fair. There is a separate zone too for children.
